Classroom Posters

There are many words from which you can choose from in this packet to add to your word wall. You definitely do not need to use all of them. Use only the ones that are appropriate for your class. There are two options for posters. You can choose to have a full size word blend poster and use the long thin word cards that follow and mount them with painters tape like did with these word family posters below.

Or you can choose to use the half page size with the smaller word cards and place them in a pocket chart for the week you are using them.

Classroom Posters

Then you can transfer them to your wall or take the word cards and move them to a ring and make them available in your writing center or under/near your word wall for easy reference.

Small Playing Cards

Sorting: These are also the cards you will use for sorting blends once you have introduced more than one set of blends. (You'll find the sorting labels at the end of this unit.) You can use a pocket chart or use a festive and fun container and label them with the families you have introduced so far. Students can select a card randomly from a pile (or better yet, find a container that you can use as a sensory tub and fill it with shredded paper, rice, noodles or whatever you can find that is thematic or festive), and then place it under the correct blend label or in the correct blend container. I often use a fun 'Mr. Munchie Mouth' for this activity too, or the thumbs up thumbs down cards to keep things interesting. This is a favorite activity in my class. There is a recording sheet if you need one.

 Please note you will find that there is a blue bordered set of playing cards in all the blend packs. I did this so that teachers would have the option of offering a bit more challenge with sorting to their student who need it.

A Silly ST Word Story

Stan and Stella take quick steps on their way back from the stamp store. A storm is coming. There is no time to stop and sit on a stump. No time look to for sticks and stones. As they step up the house stairs the storm starts. Just in time, they step into the house and hand their mom a star stamp. "Thank you. Now stop and sit on a stool. I have stirred up a stack of sticky hotcakes for you!"

Highlight or underline all words in the story above with the ST sound. Record how many ST words you find in the square above. Cut apart the mixed up words below to make a sentence. Glue it in the box below and write the sentence on the lines.

Teachers: Pre-cut the slits with a straight crafters blade or the end of your scissors before passing out to your students.

Students: Cut out the letter strip and the "I can read" poster. Insert your strip, from the back, through the bottom slit and then through the top. Slowly slide your strip up through the slit, reading the words as you go.
