Say It-Make It-Write It

Each word family will include a self-correcting card for each word family. There are 10 cards to choose from depending on the students. Students use the self-correcting card independently. You can use these to extend the activity. Use the cards to use magnetic letters, white clay, play-doh or beads to create with your students. This activity is differentiated. As you introduce the word families, this station will grow with it as word work practice. The next few weeks really help you prepare for all the fun!
